Callaghan Youth Leadership Conference

Dear Parents and Carers,

Your child has been selected to attend the inaugural Callaghan Youth Leadership Conference on Monday 3rd April. This event provides workshops and activities presented by Year 11 and 12 student leaders including past and present Callaghan College captains. Workshops include a number of short, fun and practical activities. Participating students will receive a workbook with information about each workshop including space for their own follow up notes for each of the activities.

Workshops for the day include: - Welcome/Acknowledgement of Country

- Icebreakers
- Problem solving skills
- Speech writing
- Presentation
- Public speaking
- Organising events
- Fundraising
- Balancing
- Wellbeing

The Callaghan Youth Leadership Conference is on Monday 3rd April from 9am- 2:30pm. Students will be required to arrive at school by 8:30am wearing their full school uniform. They will walk to and from the Callaghan College Jesmond Auditorium under the direct supervision of a Jesmond Public School staff member. Students may bring a small bag containing their hat and a drink bottle. Morning tea and lunch will be provided, so it's not necessary to pack a lunch box.
